

American Association of University Women
New York State 2017 Convention

Friday Afternoon – Field Trip to Matilda Gage Foundation & Stickley Museum

Please join us for a wonderful afternoon in historic Fayetteville, NY. We will leave the Doubletree Hotel at 1:00pm and carpool to the Matilda Joslyn Gage Foundation and L. & J. G. Stickley Museum in Fayetteville. The travel time will be approximately 20 minutes.

At the Matilda Joslyn Gage Foundation, we will have a guided museum tour, a talk on suffrage and human rights movement, and a wonderful High Tea. For more information on the efforts made by Matilda Joslyn Gage, please visit: www.matildajoslyngage.org

Following our visit to the Matilda Joslyn Gage Foundation, we will head to the former factory of L. & J. G. Stickley for an hour tour. We will view the Stickley Collections which span over 100 years of furniture making history. The collection includes the prominent roles of the L. & J. G. Stickley and Gustav Stickley during the Arts and Crafts era to the Cherry Valley collection of the Colonial Revival period. We will look at how the aesthetic changed over time. For additional information on the Stickley Collections, please visit: www.stickleymuseum.com

At the end of the tour, we will carpool back to the Doubletree Hotel to arrive with plenty of time to get ready for the evening activities with the convention.

To participate in this fun afternoon, please register through AAUW New York State Convention by Thursday, April 13, 2017. The cost for the program is $30 per person and includes the High Tea.

All are welcome, you do not have to attend the AAUW NYS Convention to participate in this program. A maximum of 50 attendees can participate.

"We know we are right; we know we shall be successful, we know the day is not far distant, when this government and the world will acknowledge the exact and permanent political equality of man and woman ..."
– Matilda Joslyn Gage